VENTANA

DEDICATION

Twenty-five years ago a seed of education took root on the Western Plains of Texas. Out of this seed came a school that has grown by leaps and bounds. Born of rugged pioneers, directed through times of uncertainty, conflict and doubt, expanded against opposition from all sides, Texas Technological College has risen to take its place among higher institutions of learning, standing as a monument to those who foresaw its importance and who had faith in its growth and maturity.

To those faculty members who have given twenty-five years of continuous, faithful, loyal service to Texas Technological College, the 1950 LA VENTANA, with humility and deference, dedicates the Silver anniversary yearbook.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is the official legislative body for Tech students. It is composed of four officers and representatives from the five divisions on the campus. The council holds all elections and disperses with problems which concern the student body as a whole. The group stresses high ideals, good will, and strives for closer relationship between students and administration.

This year, as years in past, the council sponsored the annual Varsity show. In cooperation with the ex-students association, the council sponsored and arranged all Homecoming activities and was in charge of the spring convocation where the Double T letters were awarded.

A dinner was held in May to administer the oath of office to council members for 1950-51.

First Row: Cecil Mardis, Don Morrison, Cloy Weems, Brodie Hutchinson, Pat Keffer, Bill Parsley, Bobby Joe Salem

Second Row: Jo Simmons, Bill Trenfield, Roy Trice, Robert Lee Craig, Bill McCasland, Gale Rogers, Margy Bullen.

SUPREME COURT

The Supreme Court, which is in its fourth year of operation, is composed of seven appointed members, including the Chief Justice, who is a senior pre-law student, and six associate justices. A senior engineering student, a home economics senior, a business administration senior, and a senior agricultural student, along with two junior pre-law students, make the associate justices. From the latter two is appointed the Chief Justice for the following year. All members of the court are appointed by May 1 to hold office during the fall and spring semesters of the following school year. Senior officers may hold office only one year.

The duty of the court is to interpret the Student Association constitution and to render decisions with written opinions, giving reasons for the decisions. The court also acts in an advisory capacity to the council.

First Row: Max Osborn, Chief Justice.

Second Row: Ernest Sears, Mary Francis Perkins, Alton R. Griffin.

Third Row: Louis Kiker, William L. Adair, Barbara Baumgardner.

WHO'S WHO AMONG AMERICAN

This year, twenty-one Tech students were listed in the national publication, "Who's Who Among American Colleges and Universities." A committee consisting of the Dean of Men, the Dean of Women, and six students, with all divisions represented, considered names submitted by the department heads to the deans of divisions.

First Row: William L. Adair, Marion Baumgardner, Andy Behrends.
Second Row: Raymond Brigham, Margy Bullen, Elizabeth Craig.
Third Row: Marshall Gettys, Kenneth Hancock, Alice Hix.

COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

Students were considered on the grounds of scholarship, leadership, prospects for future success, service to the college, and character. Only juniors and seniors with a grade average of 1.65 or better were considered.

Two of the students were named for the second time, although selection during the junior year does not insure being on the list the following year. The second-time choices are Raymond Brigham and Marshall Gettys.

First Row: Royce Hopkins, Ralph Lacy, Joe Mac Montgomery, Floyd Rector.

Third Row: Cloy H. Weems, Glenna Winston, Kathryn Witty, Marriion Woods.

Editor-in-Chief
La Ventana 1950

Dear Mr. Grimes:

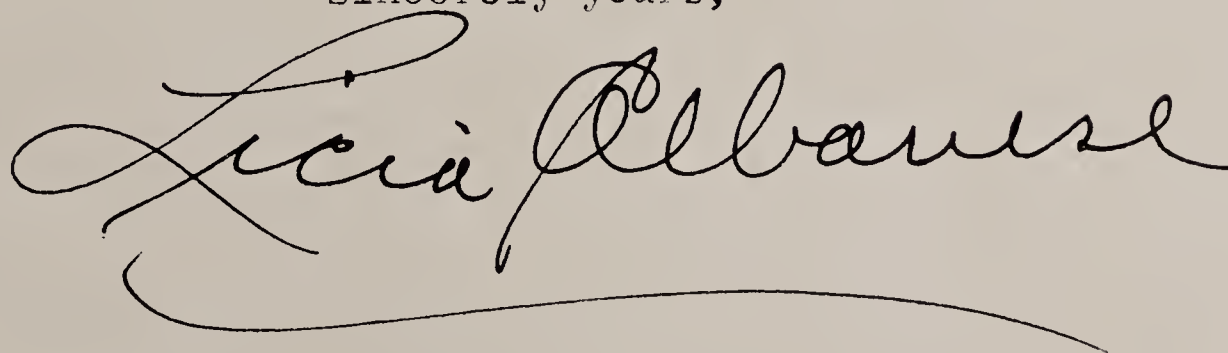

Here is the list of the eight young ladies that I have chosen out of the sixteen for the 1950 La Ventana.

1. Jeannine Ballew
2. DeLois Utterback
3. Pat Bennett
4. Dotsie Stephenson
5. Janelle Reed
6. Connie Hopping
7. Mary Anne Kelley
8. Betty Fillingim

For the benefit of the young ladies who were not selected you may assure them that it was with considerable difficulty that a decision was reached as I should have liked including many, if not all.

Let me extend my best wishes to you and the young ladies for much success for the 1950 La Ventana.

Sincerely yours,

TEXAS TECH CONCERT BAND

This year, as in past years, the Tech Band provided Red Raider fans with solid half-time entertainment at home games. Executing intricate formations that thrilled football crowds, the band demonstrated an ability on the field equal to the excellence of its concert performances.

Trips out of town for the band this year included: an excursion to San Antonio for Texas A. & M. game and a trip to Brownfield to take part in the Harvest celebration. Activities in Lubbock consisted of, in addition to many impromptu performances, a Christmas concert, participation in convocation ceremonies and the seventh annual band clinic in December.

Director D. O. Wiley, affectionately known as "Prof" by his students, is the guiding light for the Tech Band. Assistant Director Joe Haddon is due much credit for his expert handling of details in working out the band's formations.

R. O. T. C.

The R.O.T.C. at Texas Tech is composed of two units, Air Force and Army. The purpose of both units is to select and train students who possess the character, intelligence, desire, and sense of duty to become officers, and responsible citizens.

Since 1926, a unit has been established at Texas Tech. With a meager beginning of thirty-five men, it has grown to four hundred and seventy-five men this year.

Lt. Col. R. P. Riordan is the coordinator between the college and the R.O.T.C. unit.

PUBLICATIONS COMMITTEE

The Publications Committee, made up equally of faculty members and students, supervises all college publications. It was organized soon after the opening of the college. Student members are appointed by the president of the Student Council and faculty representatives by the president of the college. These two men are also ex-officio members of the committee.

Approval of the committee must be granted on expenditures, policies, records, and reports and budgets of the annual and newspaper. Contracts for engraving, photography and printing of The Toreador and LA VENTANA must also meet the approval of the body.

Prospective candidates for editor and business manager of campus publications must be approved by the committee before the names are put on the ballot for election by the Publication Committee. Associates to the editors are passed by it, also. If the editor or business manager resigns, a successor is appointed by this body. The faculty members this year are: A. B. Strehli, faculty chairman; Clark Schooley, Toreador sponsor; R. A. Mills, LA VENTANA sponsor; Miss Gussie Teague, Haskell Taylor, and Mrs. Mina Lamb.

Student members are: Marshall Gettys, student chairman; Don Morrison, Margie Bullen, Roy Trice, Robert Lee Craig, and Elizabeth Craig.

TECH PRESS

Tech Press is the self-sustaining print shop. Under the supervision of Wayne Kittley, it prints most of the college publications including The Toreador and the Ex-Student, a monthly alumni magazine. The press enables Tech to print, among other things, its own registration forms, library and activity cards, catalogues, schedules, football and artist course programs.

The modern fluorescent-lighted shop covers the entire north wing of the first floor in the Press Building. Tech Press moved there from the engineering building in 1941 when the Press Building was completed.

Joe Powell looks on approvingly.

AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF CHEMICAL ENGINEERS

The Tech student chapter of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers, which was organized in 1938, was the first chapter in Texas. The only requirement for membership is an undergraduate standing in chemical engineering.

The purpose of the club is to promote relations between students and the faculty and to help the student understand the problems and situations encountered in the profession of his choice. The club also has three other purposes, those being to promote interest in chemical engineering, to create contacts with related industries, and to provide an organized representation for the students in the department of chemical engineering.

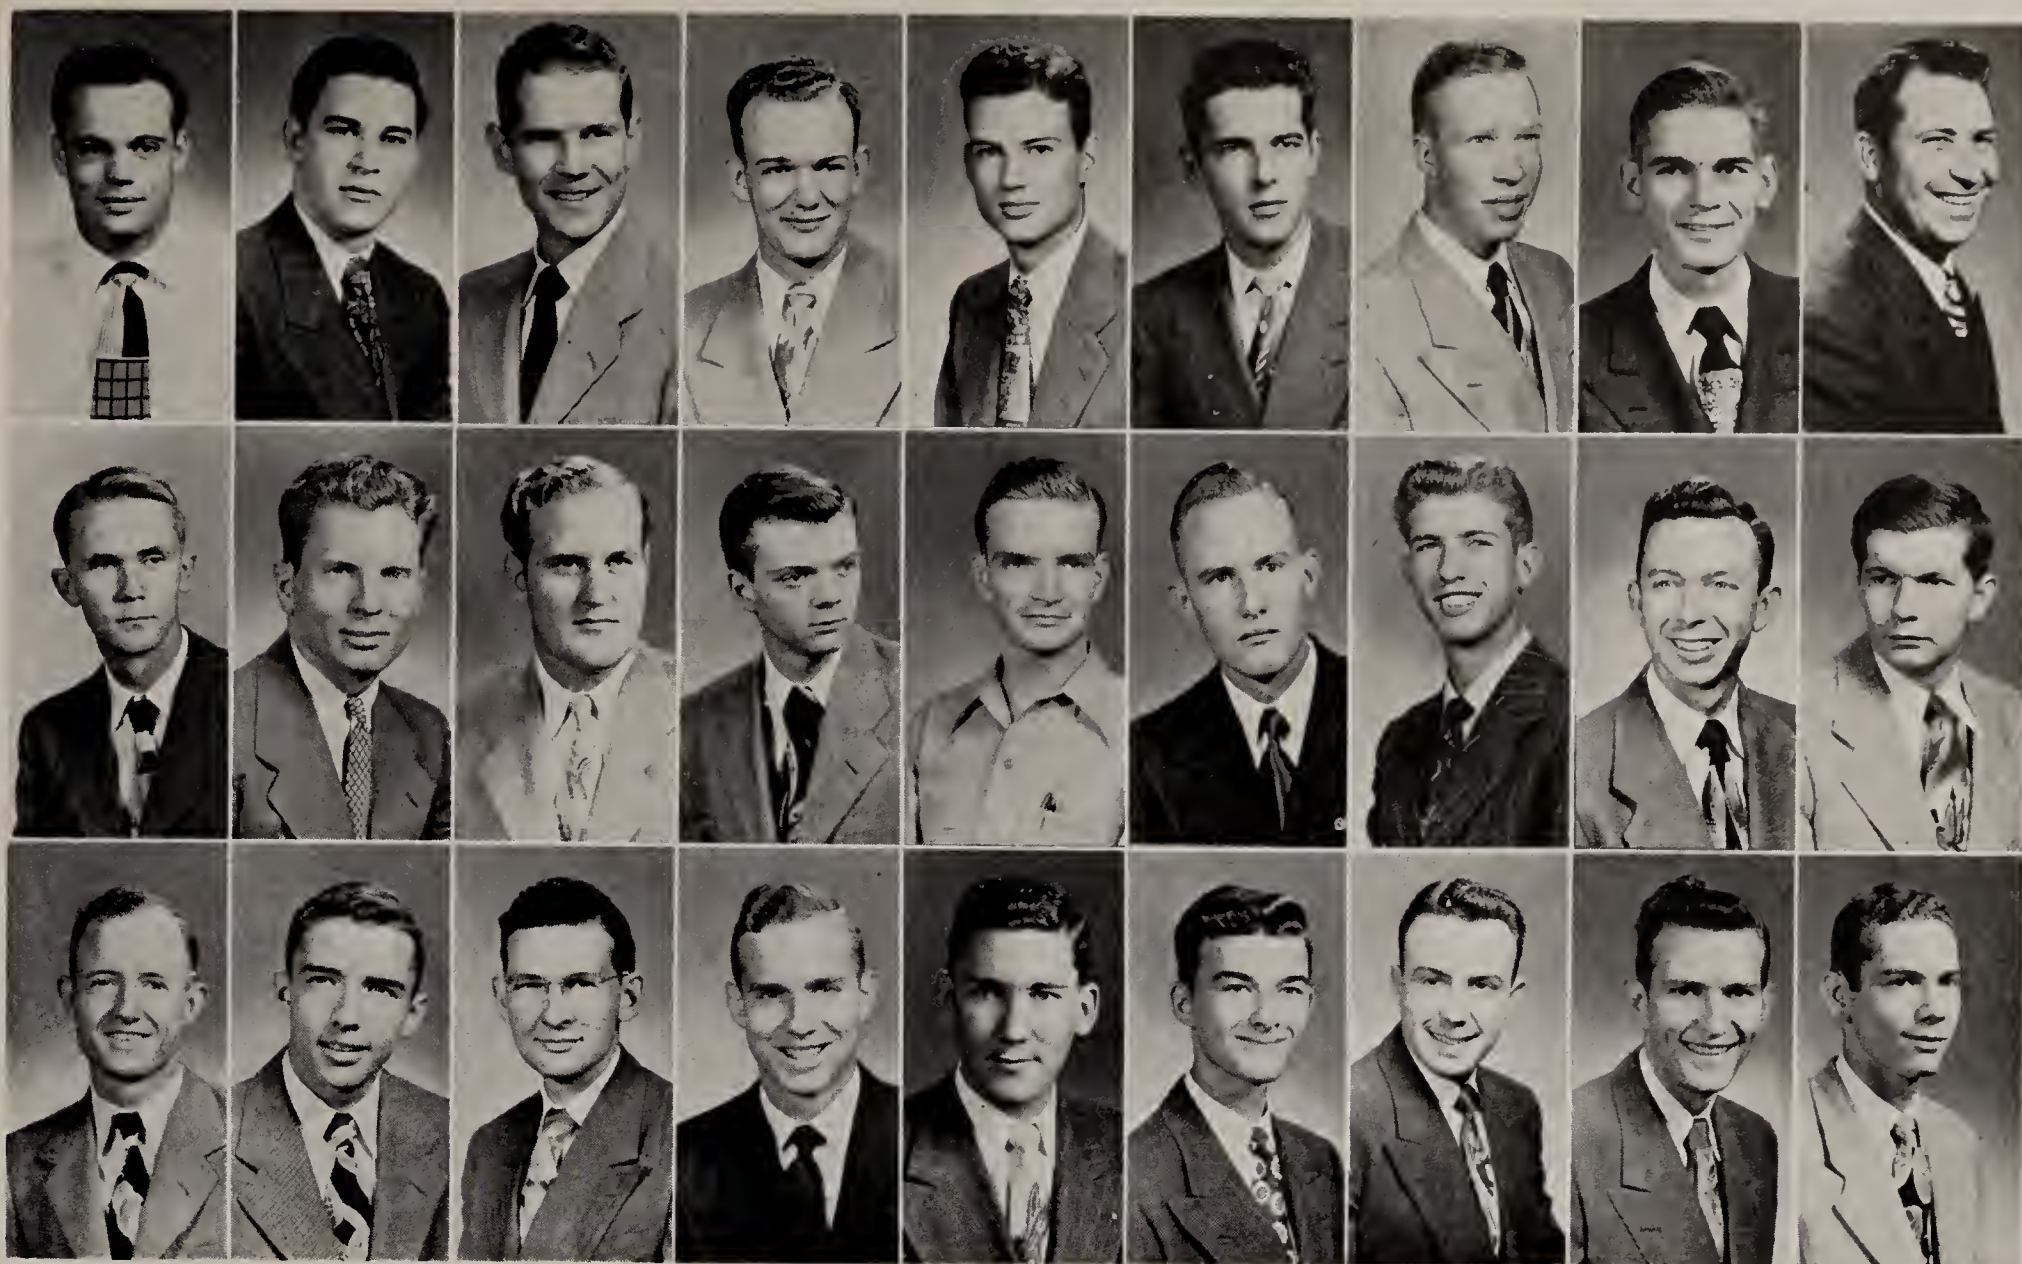

Meetings are held once a month. The first meeting of the year is a smoker. In the spring a picnic is held. Once each year a plant inspection trip is taken to various industrial centers throughout the country.

AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF ELECTRICAL ENGINEERS

The purpose of the Texas Technological College Branch of the AIEE is the advancement and dissemination of knowledge of the theory and practices of electrical engineering, the presentation of a proper perspective of engineering work and the opportunity to become acquainted with the personnel and activities of the Institute.

The AIEE is a professional society for electrical engineering majors. All students of the Electrical Engineering Department with a "C" average or better are eligible for membership.

Programs consist of lectures from outstanding scientists and professional engineers on subjects of current interest in the electrical field.

AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF MECHANICAL ENGINEERS

Activities of the year include an annual Fall Petroleum Engineering Freshman Open House. This introduces the freshmen to the department, to the upperclass petroleum engineers, and to the A.I.M.E. The petroleum engineering float in the Homecoming parade is another project of the A.I.M.E. which affords opportunity for the petroleum engineers to demonstrate their skill and ingenuity in a competitive undertaking. The A.I.M.E. also sponsors the annual Petroleum Engineering Field Trip, which is a three- or four-day inspection tour to some outstanding operation or installation in the petroleum industry.

The purpose of the chapter is to promote among its members a self-sought increasing knowledge of Geology and Petroleum Engineering in all its branches and to instill a professional pride in the life-work they have chosen.

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CIVIL ENGINEERS

The American Society of Civil Engineers was founded in 1852 and the local student chapter was chartered in January, 1933. Its objectives are: "The advancement of the science of engineering, the professional improvement of its members, the encouragement of intercourse between men of practical science, and the establishment of a central point of reference for its members." The local chapter offers the students of civil engineering a chance to acquaint themselves with the activities of the A.S.C.E. as a whole.

Members from the local chapter attended both of the state meetings of the A.S.C.E. The fall meeting was held in San Antonio, and the spring meeting in Dallas. A. L. Kincheloe of Tech is president of the Texas Conference of Student Chapters. Dr. George A. Whetstone is the faculty sponsor and Mr. J. H. Murdough is honorary faculty sponsor.

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF MECHANICAL ENGINEERS

The purpose of the society is to promote good citizenship, cooperation, and leadership among the members as well as to keep the members informed on new developments in the mechanical and related engineering fields. This is accomplished through talks by guest speakers, movies, field trips, and club projects.

Any student registered for engineering is qualified to be a member of A.S.M.E., the chief purpose of which is for the advancement and dissemination of knowledge of the theory and practice of mechanical engineering. This group offers, also, the opportunity to become acquainted with the activities and personnel of the department.

Club programs at regular meetings consist of discussion of technical subjects.

ASSOCIATION OF WOMEN STUDENTS

A.W.S. is an association of all women students of the college. The governing body is a council which is composed of five elected officers, two girls from each class, and a representative from each of the women's organizations.

The council coordinates the activities of the women students and increases their sense of responsibility toward each other and to the college.

Each year A.W.S. sponsors a handbook entitled "Tech Tips," a Big Sister-Little Sister Program, a reception honoring the Texas Tech Red Raiders, the activity point system, and the spring Recognition Service for women outstanding in leadership and scholarship. A new service of A.W.S. this year is a group of hostesses who act as a welcoming committee for visitors on our campus.

AGRICULTURAL CLUB

The Agricultural Club is the oldest student organization at Texas Technological College. It became officially an organization November 17, 1925.

The purpose of the Agricultural Club is: to foster and promote among the members of the club interest in all matters pertaining to Agriculture; to encourage cooperation among the members in the major projects of the College related to agriculture; to promote social events and athletic contests; to develop leadership; to provide programs for the development and entertainment of the members; and to provide loan funds and special funds for assistance to students of the Division of Agriculture.

AMERICAN CHEMICAL SOCIETY

The Texas Tech Chapter of Student Affiliates of the American Chemical Society was organized in 1939, with the purpose of offering the beginnings of professional associations and showing the student of chemistry the other side of his chosen work. To this end the Tech chapter meets once a month to enjoy a technical movie or guest speaker.

The club has sent delegates to the National and Southern Conventions of the American Chemical Society.

CAPA Y ESPADA

Capa y Espada, one of the oldest departmental organizations on the campus, was organized to foster the interest in Spain and Latin America. Membership is open to those students having an interest in the language and customs of Spanish speaking countries. Capa y Espada gives students a broader understanding of the life and culture of Spanish-speaking people.

Activities of the organization, in which the members have active participation, include plays, banquets, movies, and picnics.

Western hemispheric cooperation was emphasized this year by Capa y Espada. "De mis vinas, no se nada," is the club motto.

CASA LINDA CLUB

Tech's cooperative house, Casa Linda, was built in 1937 with an appropriation from the Texas legislature. It was opened to students for the first time in the spring of 1938. The house is under the direction of two students, the business manager and social director, who are appointed by Deans Marguerite W. Walker and Margaret W. Weeks. Deane Richardson is social director. Dorothy Harbin is the business manager; she is assisted by Faye Neeley.

Casa Linda activities for the year will include: Open house for Exes, a Halloween Party, a Christmas Party, and a Formal Valentine Dance. Members of the organization are selected by the Dean of Women and by the Dean of Home Economics, who are the club sponsors.

The purpose of Casa Linda is economical, cooperative living. The two-story stucco building is located conveniently on the Tech campus. It is completely furnished except for the bedding and linens. The residents do all household planning and work themselves with the supervision by the two deans.

TECH CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The Texas Tech Chamber of Commerce fosters a spirit of friendly consideration among the members of the student body, and serves as a coordination agency to promote Texas Tech in every possible manner. It is the only campus-wide service organization, with membership open to any undergraduate of the student body.

In the course of the past year the Tech Chamber of Commerce sponsored the spring Howdy Dance and First Night of the Lions Club Minstrel Show. In its efforts to secure added benefits for the student body, the Tech Chamber of Commerce has supported the Blue Cross Hospitalization Plan. The main project of the year was to secure funds to construct a lighted softball field.

COSMOPOLITAN CLUB

The Cosmopolitan Club was created in February, 1949, by the international students of Texas Tech. Since its formation, the members of this club have provided international programs on the campus as well as for many civic, educational, and P.T.A. organizations throughout the south plains. In addition, they have participated actively in campus activities such as the Senior Carnival and the Homecoming Parade. The club celebrated United Nations Day with a parade of flags of each country represented by students here and presented the college the flags of the United Nations.

Members of the club represent fifteen foreign countries, two territories of the United States, and honorary members who have been executives of clubs which are international in character. The club purposes are to create international good will, to publicize Tech in foreign countries, to orient new international students, and to provide educational entertainment for persons who come in contact with international students.

TECH GLEE CLUB

The Tech Men's Glee Club was organized in 1947 by a small voluntary group of boys who met without credit just for the purpose of singing. The group became larger as more men became interested and Joe Haddon, assistant band director, donated time and services with the interest of the new singing unit in mind.

The speedy establishment of the glee club created a demand for a regular director and Mr. Richard Richards, a local businessman with extensive musical training and a professional background, volunteered to meet with the club twice per week.

During the past two years the club has been increasingly active in tours and performances throughout the South Plains area and will make a two-week trip to Chicago during the summer of 1950.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The Home Economics Club, organized in 1925, is one of the oldest and largest organizations on the Texas Tech campus. It is affiliated with the American Home Economics Association and the Texas Home Economics Association. Membership in the club is extended to any girl on the campus who is interested in Home Economics. The aims of the club are to promote friendship, develop a professional attitude among Home Economics women, and promote interest in the field of Home Economics.

The club maintains the Margaret W. Weeks Loan Fund, to be used by any student majoring in Home Economics, upon the recommendation of the Home Economics Council.

Activities of the year are the annual Howdy Party, the Aggie-H.E. Party, Home Economics Open House, and a spring social.

The Lens and Shutter Club was organized in the fall of 1949. Its purpose was to promote photography among students enrolled in Texas Tech. During several meetings this year, the club has had outstanding photographers discussing the finer points of photography and how to improve the members' ability in photographic work.

LIEDERKRANZ

Liederkrantz, one of the oldest language clubs on the campus, was organized to promote appreciation and enjoyment of German folklore. One of the purposes is to emphasize the lighter side of a stiff course. At the monthly meetings German songs are sung and the pursuits of the German people are studied. Liederkrantz was organized in 1938 by Dr. Thor J. Beck. Musical and dramatic skits and radio broadcasts are given by members.

PLANT INDUSTRY CLUB

The Plant Industry Club was organized in 1936 for the purpose of stimulating scholarship and leadership among graduate and undergraduate students in the department. New members are composed of those who have expressed an interest in some field of plant industry and who have completed a minimum of sixty semester hours with a C average.

Activities of the club include a Homecoming breakfast honoring exes, a fall steak fry to honor new members, and a banquet and picnic in the spring.

PRE-LAW CLUB

The Pre-Law Club, organized in 1926, is one of the oldest clubs on the campus. Its organizers had in mind to acquaint students with the many phases of law practice, and through the Texas Tech Supreme Court, give the students training in actual court procedure. Realistic enactments of crime are staged from which club attorneys gather evidence and present it as a colorful trial before a mock student jury.

In addition to the two mock trials, activities for the year include a picnic, a Christmas party, and a coffee honoring the alumni at Homecoming.

Membership in the club is open to all regularly enrolled students interested in the study of law.

PRE-MED SOCIETY

The objectives of the Pre-Med Society are to join together mutually interested students, to promote fellowship, to encourage scholarship, and to acquaint the pre-medical student with his selected profession. The Society is mainly for Pre-Med Students, but students other than pre-med may become members if their selected profession is a phase of medicine. The insignia of the organization is a skull and crossbones; the motto is "The difficult we do now, the impossible we will do later."

The purpose of the Pre-Med Society is to stimulate the students' interest in pre-medical education by means of a series of lectures by local doctors and instructors.

TECH 4-H CLUB

One of Tech's newest clubs was organized at the beginning of the 1948 fall semester with a charter membership of sixteen. These charter members consisted of some of Texas' outstanding 4-H members.

A constitution was adopted from the club of Washington State College. The club is pledged to promote and continue interest in 4-H work, to interest 4-H members in attending college, and to lend assistance to the state 4-H program. On Tech campus the club strives to develop leadership through discussion groups and other activities.

SOCK AND BUSKIN

Sock and Buskin, one of the oldest clubs on the campus, is an organization of students who are interested in dramatics. Membership in the club is attained by try-outs before a committee. New members are selected early in each semester of the regular session. New officers are elected each semester.

Regular meetings are held the first and third Tuesdays of each month in the Speech Building auditorium. The programs consist of one-act plays presented by the members of the club and directed by senior members or members of the speech faculty; novelty programs, and lectures on topics relative to the theater, such as costumes, lighting, make-up, and scene design and construction. At least two social affairs are held annually, a Christmas party and a picnic in the late spring.

Members of the club take an active part in plays presented for public performances. All Alpha Psi Omega members are members of Sock and Buskin.

TECH ACCOUNTING SOCIETY

The Tech Accounting Society was organized in 1939 with 21 charter members, whose aim was to affiliate those students who are interested in accounting and who have completed the minimum requirements for club entrance into the organization. To be eligible for entrance, the student must first be approved by the members. Also, he must have completed eight hours of elementary accounting with an average of "B" and three hours of advanced accounting with a "C" average. No student is eligible for membership until his junior year.

Meeting on the first Monday night of each month, the group discussed and presented papers on current accounting problems and practices. The social event of the most importance during the year was the semester banquet, which was substituted for the last monthly meeting and at which time shingles of the society were presented and recognition of honor students in the group was made.

The Tech Rodeo Association was established to promote rodeo activities among students of Texas Tech. The rodeo association has built an arena on the campus. The purpose of the arena is to provide a place where all students of Texas Tech who are interested in rodeos and rodeo activities may go and enjoy these activities.

The Tech Rodeo Association is very interested in promoting the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association which was organized last year for the purpose of promoting rodeo activities among colleges and to select the National Champion Cowboy and Cowgirl. This association is very much interested in having an N.I.R.A. Rodeo at San Francisco in which all colleges belonging to the N.I.R.A. may participate.

TEXTILE ENGINEERING SOCIETY

All students in the textile department are eligible for membership in the Textile Engineering Society. Organized on the campus in 1937 as a professional society, it seeks intellectual advancement of the students in the department and tends to promote good fellowship among the textile engineers.

The club meets on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month. The society sponsors various projects every semester, such as the sale of laundry bags which they make themselves in order to raise money. The funds are used to make annual industrial tours in April. The group make a wide swing through most parts of Texas visiting industrial plants in several of the cities. The tour is an educational insight for a society backed by natural interest and enthusiasm.

STUDENT RELIGIOUS COUNCIL

The purpose of the Student Religious Council is to promote campus-wide religious activities. The Council is concerned primarily with the spiritual welfare of the students. The Council is made up of two youth representatives and an adult advisor from each of the several churches represented. By this united effort, the churches of Lubbock are striving to better serve Jesus Christ on the campus of Texas Tech.

The most important activity of the year is the promotion of Religious Emphasis Week in the fall semester. In all its activities, the Student Religious Council strives to maintain a cooperative program embracing the entire campus.

WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Wesley Foundation is the Methodist Church at work on the college campus. It, like the church, is a fellowship which reaches to students in many lands. When a student becomes a member of one Methodist group, he links hands with like-minded students around the world.

The Texas Tech Wesley Foundation operates through the Methodist churches of Lubbock and the Methodist Student Center. It offers a complete program of worship, activities, and service.

Several hundred students each year find growth and enrichment by availing themselves of the opportunities offered by the Wesley Foundation.

HOME OF WESLEY FOUNDATION

The dream of a larger and more adequate "Home Away From Home" has been realized this year by the erection of a new Methodist Student Center. The generous spirit of Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Overton has made possible the building at 2420 Fifteenth Street.

In its new home, the Wesley Foundation is offering to students an even broader and more interesting program than has been possible in its previous fifteen years of existence.

WESLEY PLAYERS

Alpha Eta chapter of Wesley Players is affiliated with the National Society of Wesley Players which has some 35 chapters throughout the United States. The preamble to the National Constitution describes the purposes of the society, in part, in the following words: To study the relationship between the religion of Jesus, the conflicts in the soul of man, and the expression of them in drama; to promote a program of drama that is sincere, intelligent, and artistic.

Regular meetings are held twice each month. There are 96 members and pledges who are active in the chapter. About 12 plays are presented by the group each year. The directors of the plays are selected from the membership of the organization. Reverend and Mrs. Cecil R. Matthews supervise the functions of the chapter.

Pledges are accepted into the organization each semester and they are honored with a banquet and initiation service when their pledgeship is completed.

WESTMINSTER FELLOWSHIP

Westminster Fellowship is the service organization of Presbyterian students at Tech, and is a unit of the National Council of Westminster Fellowship. The Joint Committee for Presbyterian Student Work at Tech, appointed by the two co-operating Synods of Texas, sponsors the organization.

The purpose of WF is to reach every Presbyterian student with a varied and vital program of Christian fellowship, training and service. Westminster House, the student center at 2414 13th Street, opens daily at 7:30 for Morning Watch, with a large number of students meeting for a brief worship period to start the day.

Events during the year were the Freshman Reception, Fall Round-Up and Barbecue, the Loyalty Banquet, Celtic Cross Commitment, the Missions Banquet, and a wide variety of social and service activities.

YOUNG WOMEN'S AUXILIARY

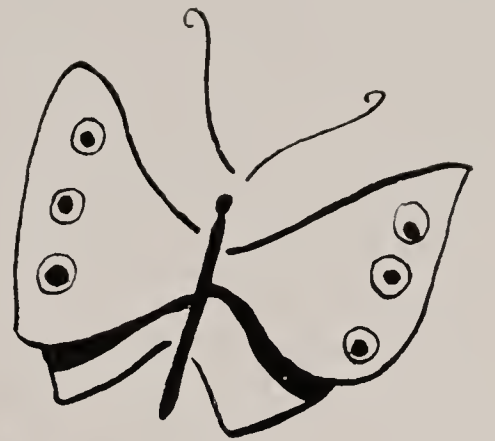

Every Baptist college girl is eligible for membership in the Ann Hasseltine YWA, a missionary organization of the BSU. Meetings are held every Thursday night, and programs and activities to promote missionary interest are sponsored. The social highlights of the year are the Fall Party and the Sweetheart banquet in February. In the wide variety of life's interests, young women wish a haven of worship, and information regarding this strategic world enterprise of missions. Young Women's Auxiliary fulfills this natural desire and need.

Social

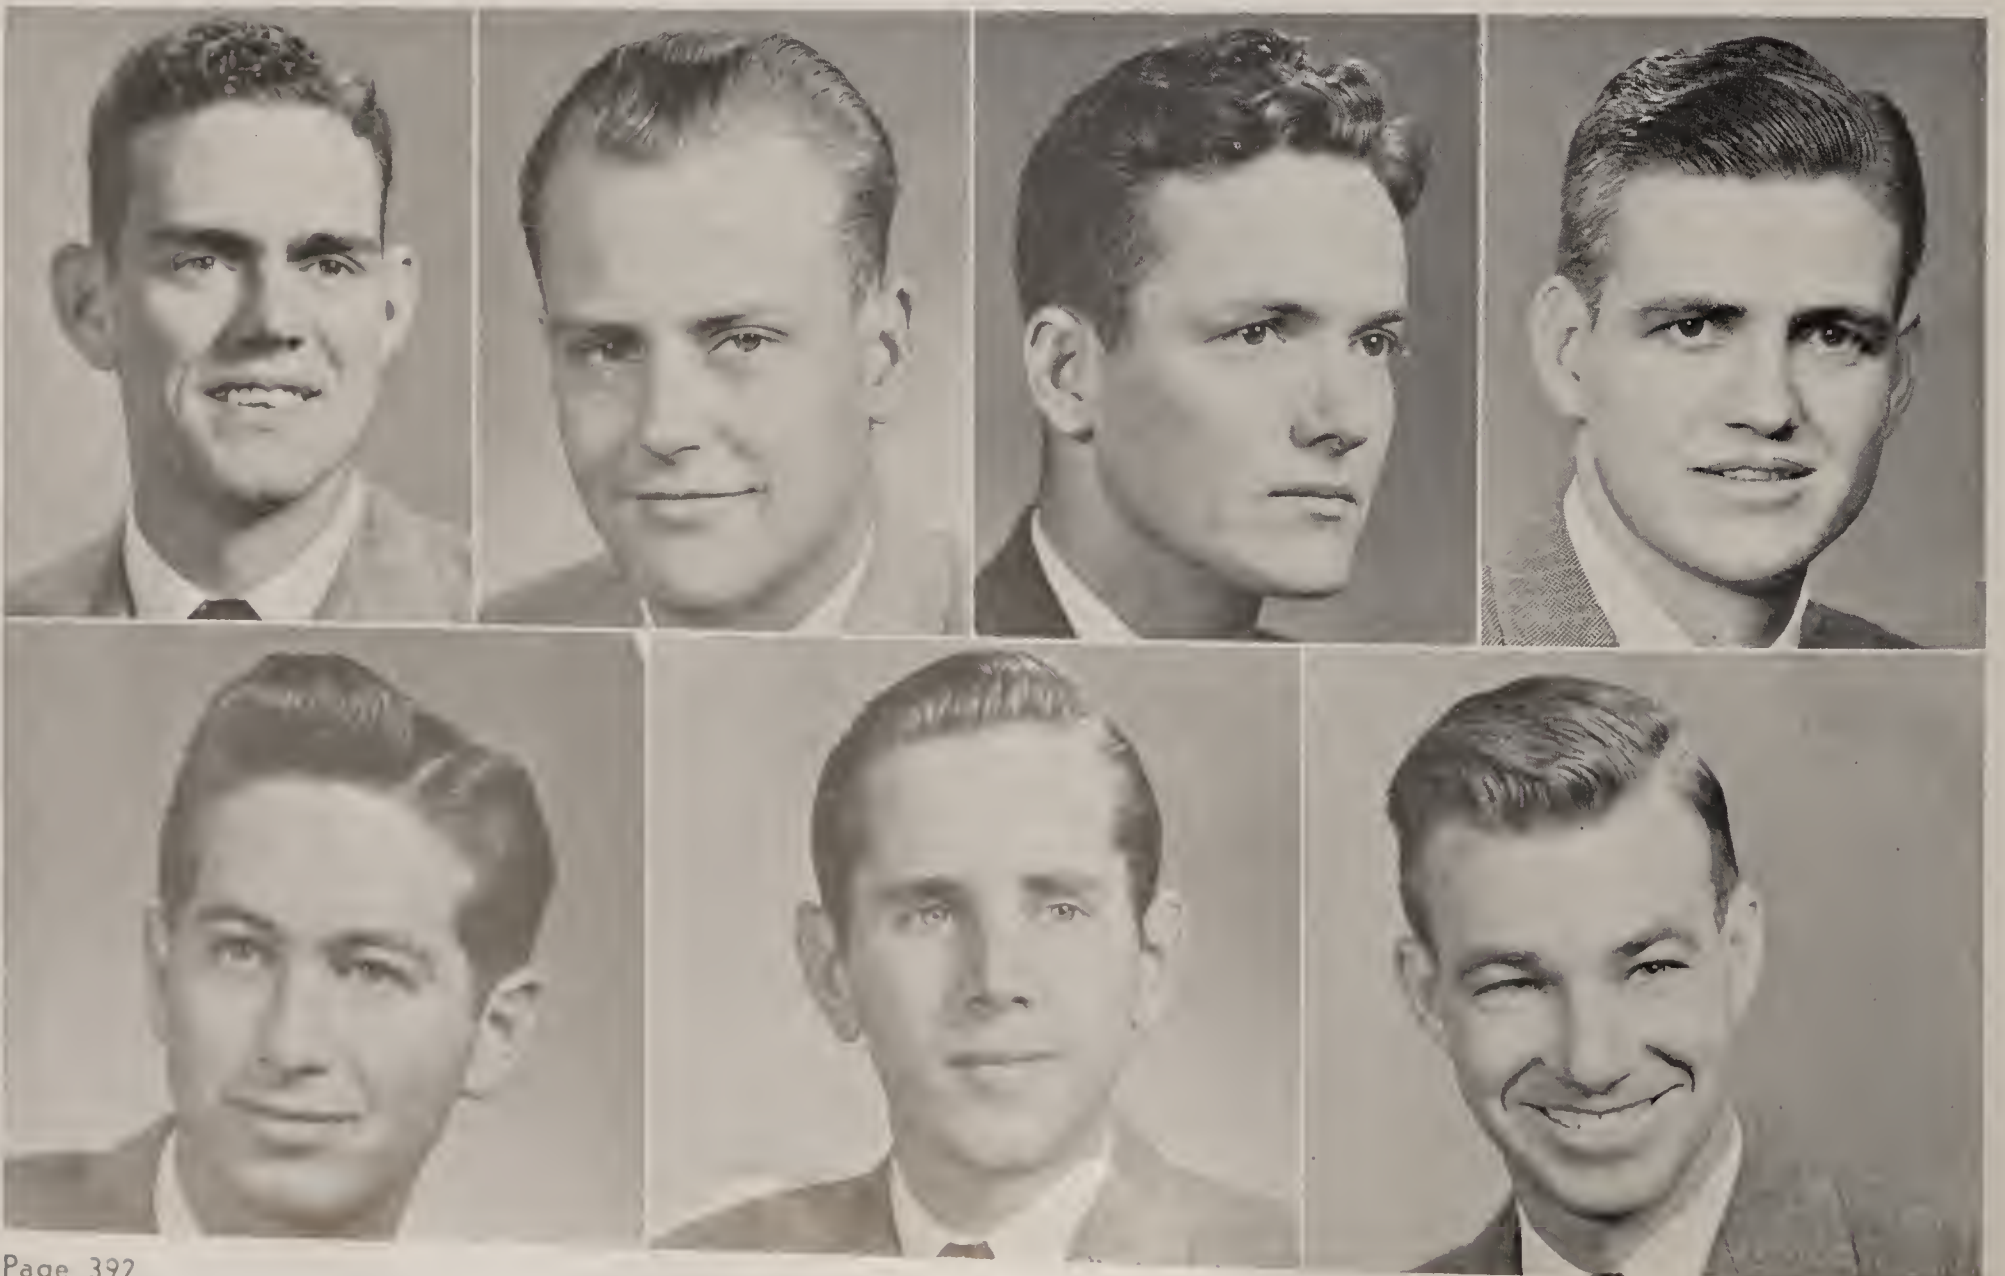

M. I. C. C.

Men's Inter-Club Council was organized in the fall of 1936 to help work out the problems of the men's social clubs on the Texas Tech campus. Membership of M.I.C.C. consists of the individual social club presidents. The organization sponsors intramural football, basketball and softball and presents awards to the winners of each sports at the annual smoker held at the Hilton Hotel each spring. A large plaque is also presented at the smoker to the club with the highest scholastic average of the preceding year. Rush week convocations and parties are under the guidance of the Council.

W. I. C. C.

The purpose of the Women's Inter-Club Council is to promote congeniality among girls' social clubs and democracy among all women students, and to consider and regulate matters concerning women's social clubs. The council encourages higher scholastic achievements among social club members. In the spring W.I.C.C. sponsors a softball tournament for the clubs and awards a plaque to the club having the highest scholastic average. A luncheon in the fall and a breakfast in the spring are sponsored by the council for members of the women's social clubs. Membership is composed of the president and one representative of each of the girls' social clubs.

The Centaur Club, organized in 1929, was the first men's social club on the campus to have all of its members college students. The purpose of the club is to promote the ideals of honor, scholarship, integrity, and fraternal spirit among the members.

The club has its annual Lil Abner Dance in November with all members and dates dressed Dogpatch style. Other functions include the formal dance in January, a sport dance in March, and the big event of the year, the formal dinner dance in May. The club honors its members' mothers with a breakfast on Mother's Day, the morning after the dinner dance.

The College Club, organized Nov. 21, 1928, is the oldest men's social club on the campus. The club was founded upon the ideals of brotherhood and friendship. Traditionally, College Club has the first fall formal dance and the first spring sport dance; these were held in October and March, respectively.

Active in all inter-club activities on the campus, College Club won the M.I.C.C. baseball championship last spring. The organization has won the award for the best descriptive float in the Homecoming parade for the last two years. In the fall of 1949, College Club was awarded the Thomas Trophy for entering the best all-around float in the parade.

D. F. D.

IN MEMORIAM

D. F. D. dedicates these pages in LA VENTANA to Joan Lee, who died October 2, 1949. We shall remember her as being kind and generous to all who knew her and we feel honored and humble in dedicating these pages to her.

With eight charter members, DFD was founded at Texas Technological College on March 2, 1930. It is the only social organization on the campus with a name and meaning known only to its members.

Activities for the fall semester include a Hawaiian rush party, a formal Thanksgiving Dinner-Dance, Homecoming breakfast honoring alumnae, an introduction tea for new pledges and a Christmas party.

During the spring semester, the formal presentation dance, the last presentation of the season, highlights the activities. Other functions include the Founders' Day dinner, at which time the year's outstanding member and pledge are chosen and the farewell dance honoring seniors.

The climax of the year is the reunion held the first three days following the spring semester at Ruidoso, New Mexico.

The Kemas fraternity was organized in 1932 and is celebrating its eighteenth anniversary this year. Kemas is an Indian name meaning "friend". The purpose of the club is to promote fellowship among its members and the student body. Eight years before the war the club maintained a house on Broadway.

The "Twelfth Reunion Convention" was held at the Blackstone Hotel in Ft. Worth in August. Traditional social functions included rush week activities, a semi-formal dance honoring new pledges, Homecoming banquet, Christmas party, and a spring festival dance.

Ko Shari Club is unique in that its background is ancient, historical and of Indian origin. Ko Shari means "delight makers" and on the campus the club has sought high scholastic standards, a democratic spirit toward college associates, and has encouraged participation in campus activities. Rush week was climaxed by the Indian Dinner carrying out the tradition and background of the club. The Hallowe'en Masquerade, the patronesses' barbeque, December dinner-dance and annual Christmas party were main events of the fall semester.

The Ko Shari float won first place for being the most beautiful in the Homecoming parade. Following presentation in March, patronesses and alumnae join the members to make their annual Easter trip to Santa Fe. Easter festivities were climaxed by initiation at Arrowhead khiva on Sunday evening. Picnics given by the alumnae and patroness groups and the farewell breakfast closed the year.

Las Chaparritas functions to unite girls of a common interest through associations and in engaging in social activities. The club, which was organized in 1926, is the oldest women's social club on the campus. It has perpetuated the aim to aid in campus-wide activities which need its support, and to foster happiness among its own members and groups with whom they come in contact.

In the fall, the club honored new pledges with a picnic and a formal dinner-dance. The Christmas party which is also a yearly affair was another of the fall activities.

Highlighting the spring functions was the traditional Valentine Presentation in February at which new members and pledges were presented to the tune of "Sweetheart on Parade". Included in the spring events were the tea dance given by patronesses, a spring farewell dance, and a picnic honoring graduating members.

Las Chaps of both past and present are traditionally united in July at the annual reunion in Cedarvale, Oklahoma.

Las Vivarachas, organized in the spring of 1930, is the youngest of the women's social clubs on the campus. Its Spanish name, meaning "the lively ones," was selected in conjunction with the Southwestern site and Spanish architecture and customs of Texas Tech.

The 1949-50 social calendar began in September with rush functions which were climaxed by "Club Vivi". The annual Starlight dance and Homecoming reception for Exes in October were closely followed by a coke party honoring alumnae and patronesses in November and Christmas activities in December. In February the group entertained with its costume dance, and in April, the highlight of the year, the Presentation dance honoring new Vivis and Vivi pledges was held. Closing the year, the traditional farewell dinner honoring seniors was given.

Las Vivis old and new meet together at their reunion held each summer. The club endeavors in all its activities "to promote friendship and congeniality among its members and others on the campus."

Los Camaradas was organized in 1930 to promote a friendly relationship between its members and other students. It has continued to carry on this tradition.

A dance held on October 28 started off the year's social events. The highlight of the early school activities was the annual fall formal dinner-dance December 3. The spring activities included a sport dance and a picnic dance held at the Mackenzie party house. During Homecoming, a reception for "Exes" was held in the new Womble Olds "Rocket Room". The club participated in intramural football, basketball, baseball, and track.

Sans Souci, the second oldest women's club on the campus, was organized in 1926 for the purposes of promoting congenial friendships and social activities, and to maintain the highest moral and scholastic standards.

Sans Souci inaugurates the presentation dances with its annual Christmas presentation. Other fall activities included a sport Homecoming dance, the traditional Gold and White dinner, an introductory tea to honor new pledges, and a ranch supper given by patronesses. During the spring semester, the club participated in the baseball tournament, held its annual dinner-dance, and gave its traditional Gypsy dance in April. Alumnae entertained the active club with an Easter breakfast. Patronesses gave the club a tea dance, and were entertained in turn at a picnic supper. A date picnic and a farewell party for seniors concluded the year's activities.

As an altruistic project, Sans Souci annually prepares Christmas boxes for poor families in Lubbock and, as a group, delivers the presents to the various families.

The Silver Key fraternity was organized in October, 1929, for the purpose of promoting a close feeling of brotherhood among its members and to uphold the principles of democracy on the campus. This was the second fraternal organization on the Tech campus and the twentieth anniversary of the Keys was observed this year.

Preceding the school year, the fraternity held its annual reunion in Mexico City from September 1-5. The social year began last fall with the annual Homecoming alumni dinner held following the football game, October 15. New members and fall pledges were honored at the fall dinner-dance, November 5, and the annual Christmas dance was held December 9.

The spring dance was held March 31 of this year and a farewell breakfast, honoring graduating seniors, terminated the school year.

Socii is the youngest social club on the campus, being formed in 1935. Socii is a Greek word meaning "brotherhood" and is based on a social fraternity of the same name that existed at Oxford University during the 18th century. The club today still has the same basic principles and ideals as those set by the Oxford fraternity.

Activities of the year included two "Big Brother-Little Brother" breakfasts, a fall dance, a spring dance, and a picnic. Highlighting the spring semester functions was the traditional Orchid dance, for which each member presents his date with an orchid. This year the dance was held in February.

Wranglers fraternity was organized in October, 1929, and has been active continuously since that date. The nine charter members founded the organization for the purpose of promoting higher ideals in all activities of college life as regards scholarship, social activities, standards of living, and true fellowship.

Each semester, Wranglers holds a rush function for prospective pledges and gives the traditional "Big-Brother, Little-Brother" breakfast honoring new pledges. The annual Christmas dance, the twenty-second George Washington Birthday Ball honoring new members and a spring sport dance in April are the principal social activities. At the end of the year, a dinner is held for graduating seniors. The club also participated in all intramural athletics.

ATHLETIC COUNCIL

George Langford, H. F. Codeke, Marshall Gettys, Dr. William Davis, chairman; Jimmie Wilson, Morley Jennings, Fred W. Sparks.

The athletic council was established for the purpose of determining departmental personnel, ruling on the eligibility of Tech's athletic students, scheduling all athletic events, and planning the athletic budget. They were mainly responsible for the Raiders declining the Sun Bowl invitation and accepting the Raisin Bowl bid this past year.

Football

FOOTBALL SUMMARY

The Red Raiders, in winning their third straight Border Conference crown, were again highly acclaimed in the Conference and also on the West Coast where they lost a close game to San Jose State in the Raisin Bowl. Tech had a regular season record of 7 wins and 4 losses, losing their four games with Southwest Conference opponents.

The Morganmen opened the season by defeating Abilene Christian College 20-0 in Jones Stadium. The following week Tech journeyed to Austin to play a determined Texas University team and in this game the Raiders suffered one of the worst defeats in the history of the school, losing 43-0. Next was the traditional game with the Aggies from A. & M. which is played in San Antonio and here again Tech met defeat 28-7. The Buffaloes from West Texas were the Raiders' next victim and Tech won 35-19. The following week the Men in Red dropped Tulsa University 15-0 in Jones Stadium.

Tech lost only one home game, to Baylor, 28-7, before a huge Homecoming throng. The Raiders kept their Border Conference record clean by downing Arizona University 27-7 on a rain soaked Jones Stadium. Tech's next game was with the soon-to-be Southwest Conference Champion Rice Owls and Rice showed its superiority by defeating Tech 28-0. Tech then moved two notches closer to the Conference championship by defeating Texas Western 13-0 and New Mexico University 27-0. The Raiders clinched the Conference title by defeating Hardin-Simmons 23-13 right after Thanksgiving, playing their best game of the year.

On December 31 Tech was defeated 20-13 by San Jose State in the Raisin Bowl, making the fifth bowl defeat in as many appearances for the Raiders.

Tech was well represented on the All-Conference team with Marshall Gettys, Dan Pursel, and Bud Conley being placed on the first team and Cal Stevenson on the second eleven.

TECH 20, A. C. C. 0

Before a "pre-school" crowd of 10,500 fans the Raiders opened their 1949 football season with a shaky 20-0 victory over a scrapping but outclassed eleven from Abilene Christian College in Jones Stadium. This game was played a full week before classes started; consequently, the crowd was composed mostly of Lubbock people and a few early arrivals.

Tech got off to a slow start and was not able to display much of an offense the first half but the Raiders came back and scored three times the second half. The initial touchdown came on a one yard off-tackle smash by Ike Stuver which climaxed an extended drive. Tech scored again on a 19 yard jaunt by Bud Conley who then lateraled to Stuver who went the remaining distance. The last Raider touchdown was on a 15 yard pass from Milton Rathbone to Jack Davis who made a beautiful catch of the ball and gave Tech their first victory of the season.

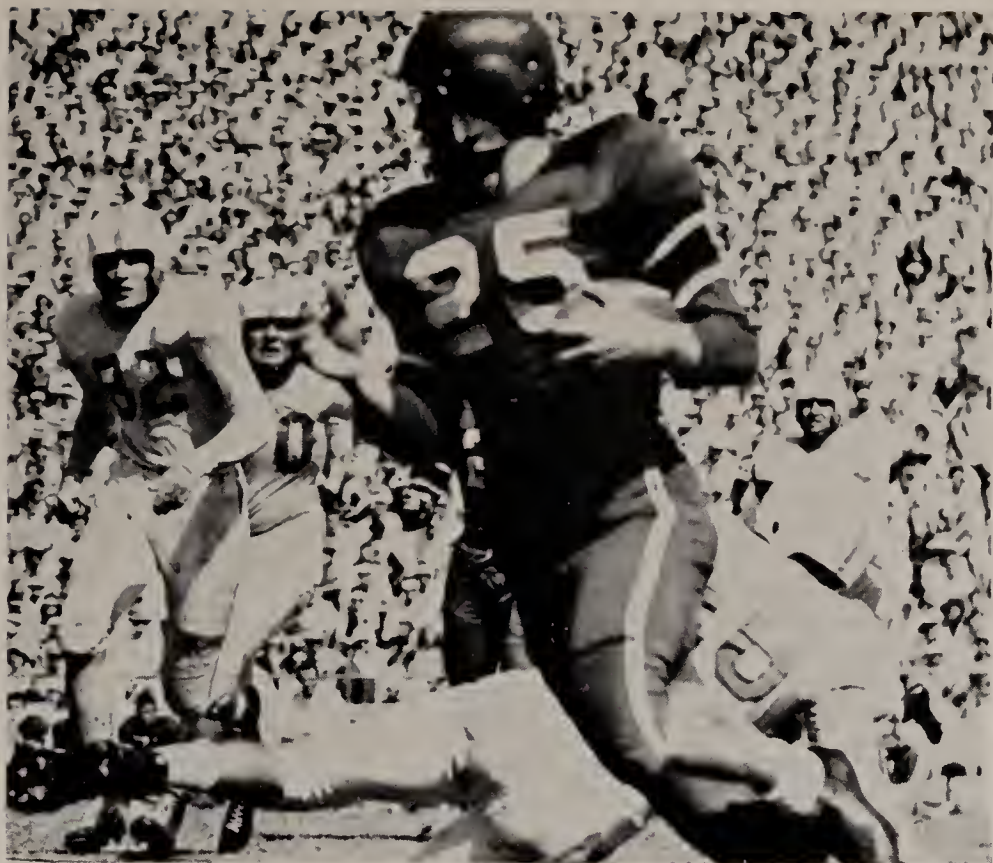

For the Raiders the running of Stuver and Fullback Earl Jackson was especially noteworthy along with the passing of Quarterback Milton Rathbone. Tech won the ball game but over-all was not to impressive and left much to be desired.

Earl Jackson and Bill Barbee look determined.

Earl Jackson gains eight yards.

Bobby Close stopped for no gain.

TECH 0, TEXAS U. 43

Playing in sweltering 95 degree heat the Raiders went down to one of the worst defeats in the history of the school before Texas University at Memorial Stadium in Austin.

Texas scored when the game was but 5 minutes old the first time they had possession of the ball and Tech was backed in a hole from then on and were unable to advance past their own 21 yard line the entire first quarter. The Raiders threatened on four occasions, twice getting inside the Steer 20, but these drives were either broken up by fumbles or the Longhorn defense, which always seemed to hold at the right time.

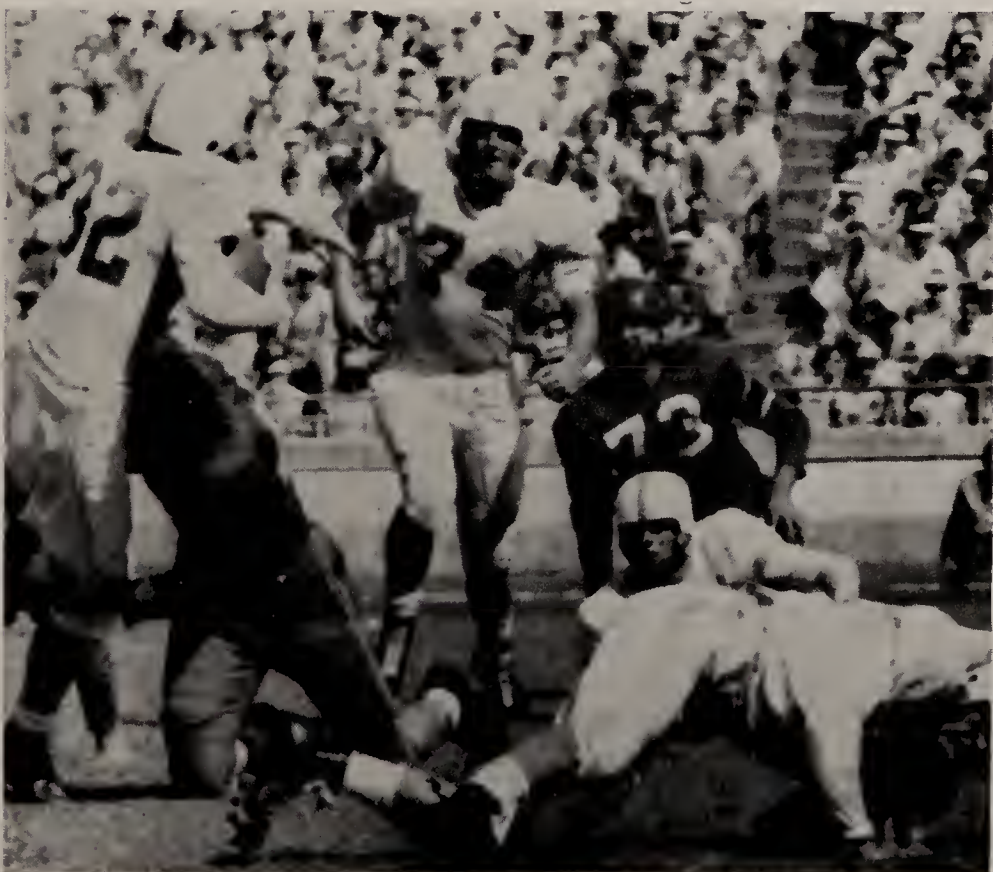

Texas had only a 16-0 lead at halftime but the terrific change in climate gradually wore down the Raiders and the Steers scored four touchdowns the second half. At times the Longhorn downfield blocking was just short of magnificent and the Raiders' tackling and pass defense were both weak.

There were some bright spots for Tech, however, especially in the line where End Jack Davis looked good making two nice catches and also Tackles Gerald Price and Marshall Gettys who were largely responsible for the score not growing any larger. In the backfield

Bobby Close, Earl Jackson, and Milton Rathbone also turned in creditable performances.

TECH 7, TEXAS A. & M. 26

Inability to get their offense rolling along with unpredictable defense enabled the Aggies from A. & M. to down Tech with a 26 to 7 margin at Alamo Stadium in San Antonio before approximately 20,000 fans including a large portion of the Tech student body and the Corps of Cadets from Aggieland.

The sophomore backs repeatedly made good yardage through the Raider line as shown by the fact that they made over 350 yards from scrimmage to Tech's 158. The Raiders made their only touchdown midway in the third quarter when they took an Aggie kick-off and marched 71 yards to score without losing possession of the ball. Again, as in the A.C.C. game, it was the running of Ike Stuver along with Bud Conley that carried the brunt of the attack and it was Conley who climaxed the drive by going over right tackle from the Aggie three for the touchdown. The statistics told the story of the game as only in penalties did the Raiders outgain the winners.

Conley and Stuver were the only bright spots in the Tech back-field and Tackle Doug McSwane along with End Dick Pirtle gave creditable performances while in the game. Guard Don Williams was lost for the remainder of the season due to an injury.

TECH 35, WEST TEXAS STATE 19

Looking more like the team that was so highly regarded before the season opened the Raiders downed the Buffaloes from Canyon by a 35 to 19 margin before 17,000 fans in Jones Stadium. The ability to move consistently to a touchdown without a drive faltering as they had on numerous occasions in the preceeding three games meant the difference. The Raiders scored when the game was but seven minutes old and then went on to add another touchdown in the initial quarter. Tech scored on a 19 yard run by Stevenson, a one yard plunge by Conley, a beautiful 50 yard end run by Jackson, and two touchdown passes from Milton Rathbone, one to Elbert Johnson and the other to Bobby Close.

The Raider offense was working almost to perfection and the passing of both Rathbone and Lyman was well above average. At times, however, the Tech line leaked considerably enabling a little 150 pound scatback named Bill Cross to do some beautiful running. Cross, along with Charley Wright, gave the Raiders plenty to worry about.

Fullback Bud Conley was the outstanding running back on the field but had some able assistance from Jackson, Close and Stuver. In the line Gettys, Price, Pirtle, and Johnson all turned in good performances.

TECH 15, TULSA 0

Although slow in starting, the Raiders managed to score a safety and two touchdowns in the second half while completely smothering Tulsa's vaunted passing attack to beat the Hurricanes 15-0 before 15,000 fans in Jones Stadium. Tulsa was never really in the ballgame although moving to the Raiders' three one time in the first half. This was the only time all night Tulsa managed to get inside the Tech 20.

Dick Cavazos tackled Fullback Paul Barry in the end zone for a safety, Hawkins passed to Ike Stuver for the first touchdown, and Jerrell Price intercepted a Tulsa pass in their own end zone for the final score. It was a rough game all the way with frequent use of knees and elbows but not a player on either team was seriously hurt.

It was again the running of Fullbacks Bud Conley and Earl Jackson along with the lineplay of Marshall Gettys and Price but they had some able assistance from Cavazos, Pirtle and Thompson along with some brilliant pass defensive work from Quarterback Earnest Hawkins. The Raider pass defense was working beautifully as the Tulsans completed only five out of twenty-one attempts.

TECH 7, BAYLOR 28

Tech fell before the might of the Baylor Bears 28-7 before 18,000 Homecoming fans in Jones Stadium. A leaky pass defense, some costly Raider fumbles, and the strong Bear reserve cost the Raiders the game but Tech was able to throw a scare into Bob Woodruff's team as they had only a 14-7 lead at the end of three quarters.

A passing sensation by the name of Adrian Burk was the Bear offensive threat as he completed 16 out of 24 passes, two for touchdowns which was made possible by the wonderful protection from the line enabling him to throw the ball practically anywhere he wanted it.

Baylor scored twice in the first quarter and twice in the fourth while Tech was getting its lone tally in the second on a 61 yard pass and run maneuver from Earnest Hawkins to Jack Davis.

Although Tech lost, it was a clean, hard-fought game and was much closer than the score indicated. Fumbling three times inside the Baylor 20 stopped Tech drives that possibly could have resulted in touchdowns and changed the complexion of the game.

Especially commendable for Tech was the performance of Dick Cavazos, Dick Pirtle, Jack Davis, Marshall Gettys, and Earnest Hawkins.

TECH 27, ARIZONA 7

Tech had to beat themselves as well as Arizona before 5,000 chilled fans in Jones Stadium, but managed to do both, grinding out a 27-7 victory for their second Border Conference victory.

The Raiders managed to save the first half from being entirely fruitless by scoring on an eight yard scamper by Bud Conley seconds before the half ended. In the third quarter the Morganmen seemed to come to life to some extent and capitalized on a pass interception by Eural Ramsey who returned the ball to the Arizona 29. Three plays later Hawkins passed to Walter Maloney and the shifty half-back outran the Wildcat defense for the tally. As the game was coming to a close, the Raiders put on an extended drive which carried to the Arizona four and from this point Hawkins carried over on a bootleg play.

The game was a slow, unexciting affair with numerous penalties imposed on both teams. There was also a noticeable lack of any long, exciting plays of the type that bring the crowd to its feet. The Raiders obviously were not ready for this game as they lacked the hustle they had displayed in their earlier games.

There were some bright spots for Tech, however, noticeably Earnest Hawkins, Bud Conley, Marshall Gettys, and Jerrel Price.

TECH 0, RICE 28

The power of the Rice Owls, both in the air and on the ground, was too much for the Raiders and they fell before the Neelymen 28-0 at Rice Stadium in Houston. It was the lack of a scoring punch that kept the Techs from breaking into the scoring column as they repeatedly bogged down when they got inside the Owl thirty yard line.

Rice scored once in the first quarter, twice in the second, and the last time in the fourth while Tech's major scoring opportunities always failed. The passing was the big difference in the game as the Raiders made almost as much yardage on the ground as did the Owls but Rice completed 15 out of 21 attempts, two for touchdowns. Quarterbacks Tobin Rote and Vernon Glass threw almost at will against the Tech defense and the Morganmen were seemingly powerless to stop them.

Although Tech lost, they probably had the outstanding player on the field in tackle Marshall Gettys who was just short of being great. He was everywhere, making at least half the tackles and blocking superbly on offense. He had, however, some able assistance from J. B. Mahler in the line and J. W. Thompson and Tim Hatch in the backfield. The latter two, along with Cal Stevenson, carried the brunt of Tech's erratic offense.

TECH 13, TEXAS WESTERN 0

Displaying a powerful second half ground attack Tech was able to push across two touchdowns after putting up an amazing defensive wall to stop Texas Western on the one yard line at the close of the first half and defeat the Miners 13-0 in El Paso. Halfback Cal Stevenson plunged over for both Raider touchdowns going six yards over center in the third quarter and three yards over the same spot in the fourth.

Tech gained short yardage in the first half but was able to stop the powerful Miner running and passing attack and then completely outplayed the Miners, both offensively and defensively, the second half.

The most encouraging aspect about the game was the type of ball the Raider backs were playing, as they were running harder than on any occasion during the year. They refused to be downed on many occasions driving on for additional yardage when it appeared they were stopped.

In the Raider line it was again Marshall Gettys, Jerrell Price, Dick Cavazos and Bobby Williams while in the backfield looking especially good were Stevenson, Conley, Thompson, Hawkins and Hatch.

TECH 27, NEW MEXICO 0

Displaying a magnificent defense that kept the Lobos at a standstill for three quarters the Raiders downed New Mexico 27 to 0 on Zimmerman Field in Albuquerque before a Homecoming crowd of 10,000 fans. The team as a whole drove with more power and finesse than they had shown all season and simply overwhelmed the Lobos in the second half scoring twice in the third quarter and twice in the fourth.

Earnest Hawkins opened the scoring shortly after the beginning of the second half by taking a punt on the Raider forty yard line and behind nearly perfect blocking running 60 yards for a score. The second touchdown came on a 1 yard plunge by Thompson which commenced a 51 yard drive. Tech scored again early in the fourth quarter on a run by Thompson covering 25 yards. The final Raider score was on a half yard plunge by Eural Ramsey climaxing a 45 yard drive covering six plays.

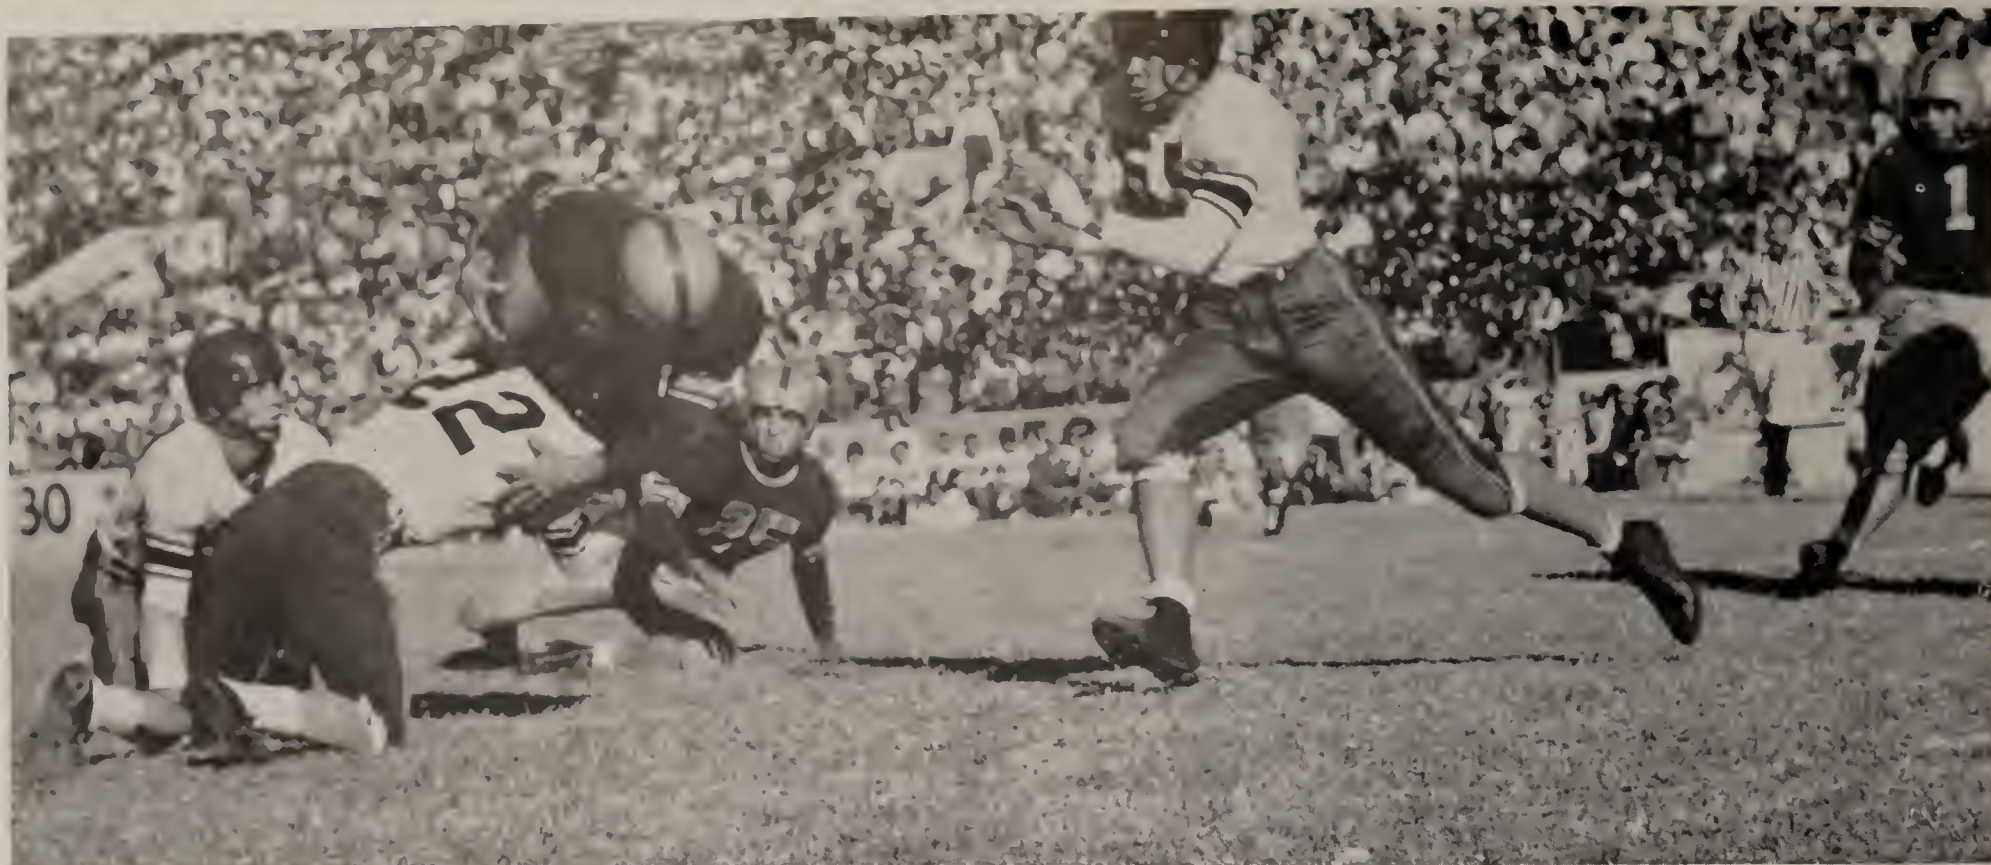

The Raider line play was nearly magnificent as they rose up time and time again to throw the Lobo backs for losses and it was not until late in the fourth quarter after Coach Morgan had cleared his bench that the New Mexico team was able to gain.

TECH 23, H. S. U. 13

Displaying an offense that was not at all representative of a Morgan-coached team the Raiders skinned Hardin-Simmons 23-13 before 15,500 fans, winning their eighth Border Conference title and their third in succession.

Employing a wide open type of offense which produced a touchdown on the first play from scrimmage Tech went on to play an inspired game with the outcome never in doubt. The Cowboy running attack never was able to get under way but probably the outstanding player on the field was Quarterback John Ford who, through his passing, kept Hardin-Simmons in the game and produced their two touchdowns.

Tech put aside its typical power attack and Coach Morgan pulled some new wide running and passing plays out of his bag of tricks which completely caught the Cowboys asleep to such an extent that they were never able to recover. The Raiders scored twice on a double reverse pass play from Stevenson to Dick Jackson and again on a brilliant 95-yard kickoff return by Herman Bailey.

It was hard to mention any stand-outs for Tech because the whole team performed superbly but in the line Marshall Gettys, Robert Hix and Dick Cavazos were practically immovable while in the backfield Cal Stevenson and Bud Conley were outstanding.

TECH 13, SAN JOSE 20

San Jose State's Golden Raiders roared from behind on the strong right arm of Quarterback Gene Menges and defeated Tech 20-13 in the Raisin Bowl in Fresno, California. An inadequate pass defense along with Menges' deadly accuracy was too much for the Red Raiders and they lost their fifth bowl appearance.

The Techs completely dominated the game the first half and opened the scoring on a half yard plunge by Tim Hatch but San Jose came back and scored on a beautiful pass play executed by Menges. Tech's powerful running game was working smoothly and they were stopping the Spartan running attack but could not cope with Menges' passing.

On the prettiest play of the game, Ike Stuver, on a fourth down fake kick, went right up the middle, shook off the only man to touch him, cut to his left where he picked up five blockers, and raced 76 yards for a touchdown.

The game was hard-fought but clean and it was a fitting finale to the college football careers of such men as Marshall Gettys, John Andrews, Dan Pursel, Bobby Williams, Bud Conley, and Cal Stevenson.

Ends—James Clark, Alton Linne, Duane Carter, James Thams, Gerald Thompson, Hollice Davis.

Under the able direction of Coaches Allie White and Frank Ottmers the freshman team produced some players that will aid the varsity a great deal next year and in the future. This team was classed by some as one of the best freshman teams in Tech's history although their record did not show it. Freshman football hopes took a severe setback when Allie White resigned to accept a position as line coach at T. C. U.

The Raider hoopsters finished the season with a record of 14 wins against 12 losses and scored a total of 1490 points to their opponents' 1400 points. They played 500 ball in the Border Conference, winning eight and losing the same number. Coach Robinson gave notice to conference opponents that his team will be a title contender next year as he loses only two men through graduation. Gene Gibson, stellar center, and Jiggs Jackson, scrappy little guard, were the only seniors on the squad. The team reached its peak against Arizona State of Flagstaff when they scored 87 points to set a new scoring record for a Tech team in a single game.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

The freshman squad had a good season in both actual competition and also in gaining valuable experience in the Robinson set style of play. Many of them showed that they would make the varsity regulars hustle to keep their starting positions and would also make capable reserves next year. The fish team was a member of a city independent league in which they finished in a tie for first place and they also defeated the Hardin-Simmons freshmen, Wayland College, and Howard County Junior College. They were defeated once by the Hardin-Simmons freshmen for their only loss in collegiate competition.

TRACK

Under the auspices of Tipp Mooney who served his first year as track coach, Tech produced a team that was typical of Raider track squads of the past few years. Again the squad was strong in the track events but lacking in the field events as are most Tech track squads. At the Southwestern Exposition Track and Field Meet in Ft. Worth in March, Charlie Pinnell, in tying for first in the pole vault, won the only points in the field events. Other men who placed in the meet were: Joe Wilson, fourth in the 440; Charlie Pinnell, second in the high hurdles; Sonny Standford, fourth in the high hurdles, and Ben Wilson, second in the half mile. The squad also placed third in the 440-yard relay and fourth in the mile relay. Other men who competed were: Roland Mullins, Earl Hutcherson, Travis Tadlock, Homer Rudd, and Charlie Williams. Williams entered in the freshman 100-yard dash event.

FENCING

The fencing team for this year consisted of all juniors and freshmen which means there should be a number of experienced men back next year. The schedule this year included two matches with a team from the Los Alamos fencing association; an inter-collegiate match with Tarleton State College at Stephenville; a tournament at Fort Worth; the divisional finals at Dallas, and the sectional finals at Texas A. & M.

TENNIS

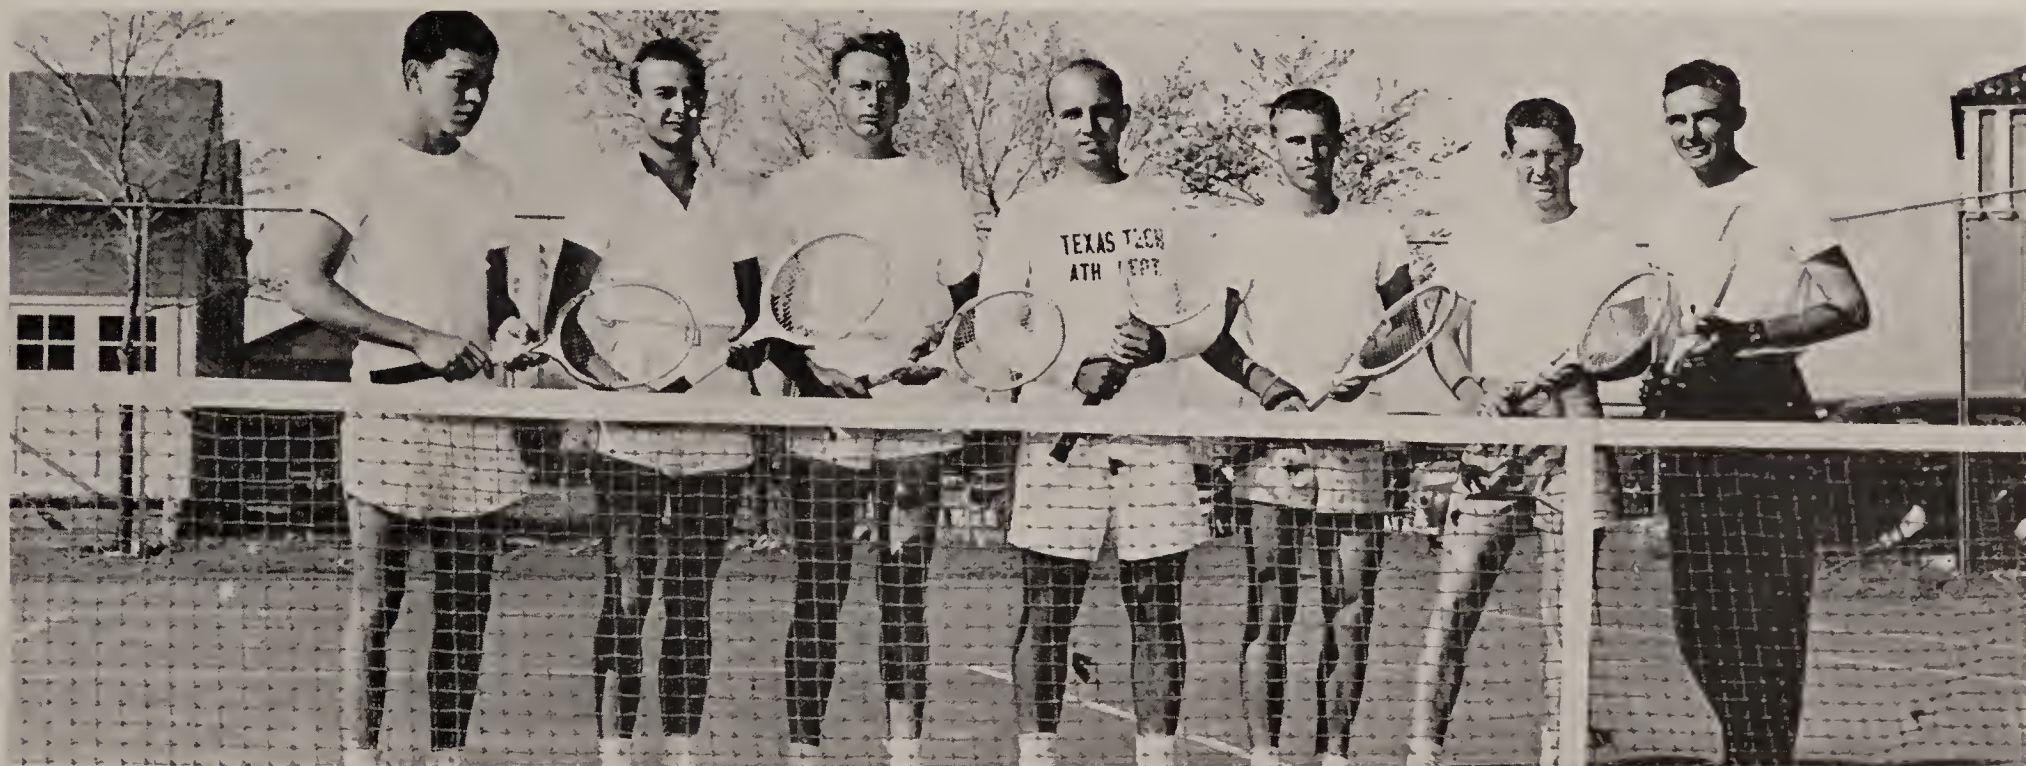

Broyles goes high for a smash against Arizona.

Led by Jake Broyles of Lamesa this year's net squad was in the favorite's role to take the Border Conference matches. The crown was held jointly by Arizona University and Tech, and Arizona lost their complete team through graduation. Broyles, who played his fourth year as Tech's number one netter, received some able assistance from Joe Wheatley, Amil Beck, Charlie Orren, and Dan Barton.

In the only competition the Raider squad had faced at the time of publication, they tied the University of Arizona with each squad winning three matches. Broyles defeated Sam Lindamood 6-0, 6-1; Orren beat Bill Sauers 7-5, 2-6, 8-6; Marty Shaw beat Wheatley 6-4, 4-6, 8-6; and Bob Rodiger defeated Dan Barton 6-2, 8-6. In doubles Broyles and Wheatley beat Shaw and Sauers 6-2, 5-7, 6-2, and Barton and Orren were beaten by Lindamood and Rodiger 6-2, 6-3.

DOUBLE T ASSOCIATION

The Double T Association was organized after the first football season following the establishment of Texas Tech in 1925. It is composed solely of athletes who have been awarded the "Double T" by the Athletic Council for competition in an intercollegiate sport. Striving to create unity among the wearers of the college symbol, members of this group are always on the alert in attempting to advance the cause of athletics at Texas Tech, and it is an organization to which all Red Raiders aspire. The annual semi-formal dance was staged in March and turning from the sublime to the ridiculous, a mock basketball game was staged in the gym by the pledges, dressed as coeds. During "Hell Week," Double T pledges could be identified by dyed hair and clothes worn backwards. Members of the club may be identified by the Double T key they wear as watch charms.

How Big Can A Department Store Get?

Being Big in serving you as a retailer has these advantages for you—

1. Being BIG means better able to bring you better buys because of greater purchasing power.
2. Being BIG means larger staff in the Fashion and other markets to make sure that we bring you the best and newest things first.
3. Being BIG means greater facilities that result in EXTRA VALUE, important in these dollar-stretching times.

So BIGNESS is important to you and HOW B-I-G do you suppose we will get?

That means you get ALL the benefits that size of staff and huge purchasing power can bring PLUS the completely inimitable and personal understanding of your needs because we're all local people ourselves . . . our management, our buyers and salespeople and all other folks needed to run a store of this size.
